

Welcome to Dortmund!

How to get to Dortmund?

From Dortmund Airport

The AirportExpress Bus runs between Dortmund Central Station and the terminal during airport operating hours. The journey time is approximately 25 minutes (non-stop). The AirportExpress stop at the Central station is located on the station forecourt (Königswall/city exit), near the taxi rank. At the airport, the AirportExpress stops on the departure level, in front of the terminal.

The fare is €10.00 per journey and route, tickets can be purchased from the bus driver (cash only) or from the ticket machine in front of the terminal (cash (notes and coins) and cashless payment by EC card or credit card). To save time when boarding the bus, it is recommended to purchase tickets from the machine.

Note that the bus service is not operated by the Rhine-Ruhr Transport Association (VRR). Public transport tickets are not valid.

From Düsseldorf Airport

Follow the signs inside the terminal to reach the railway station located at the airport. From there, three regional train services provide a direct connection to Dortmund Central Station:

RE 1 to Hamm (Westf.) Hbf (journey time approx. 46 minutes)

RE 6 to Minden (Westf.) Hbf (journey time approx. 49 minutes)

RE 11 to Kassel-Wilhelmshöhe (journey time approx. 54 minutes)

Tickets can be purchased from the ticket vending machines on the platform or via the DB Navigator app. The fare is €18.90 per single journey; the connection is located in fare zone C.

Please exit the train at Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hbf).

From Cologne Airport

Follow the signs inside the terminal to reach the railway station located at the airport. From there, a regional train service provides a direct connection to Dortmund Central Station:

RE 6 to Minden (Westf.) Hbf (journey time approx. 123 minutes)

Tickets can be purchased from the ticket vending machines on the platform or via the DB Navigator app. The fare is €34.80 per single journey using “SchöneReise Ticket NRW”.

Please exit the train at Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hbf).

Helpful transport related websites or apps

bahn.de

bahn.de is the official website of Deutsche Bahn, Germany's national railway company. On this site, you can find all essential information for travelling by train within Germany. This includes:

- Timetables: Departure and arrival times for all long-distance and regional trains.
- Journey planning: Door-to-door route suggestions, including connections and transfer times.
- Ticket prices: Information on fares, discounts, and special offers.
- Online booking: You can purchase digital tickets directly on the website.
- Travel updates: Information about delays, disruptions, and platform changes.

The website is available in multiple languages and is the central place to plan your trip and buy train tickets in Germany.

DB-Navigator

The DB Navigator is the official mobile app of Deutsche Bahn and is designed to make travelling by train in Germany easier and more convenient. The app provides all essential travel information, similar to the bahn.de website.

Advantages of the app compared to the website:

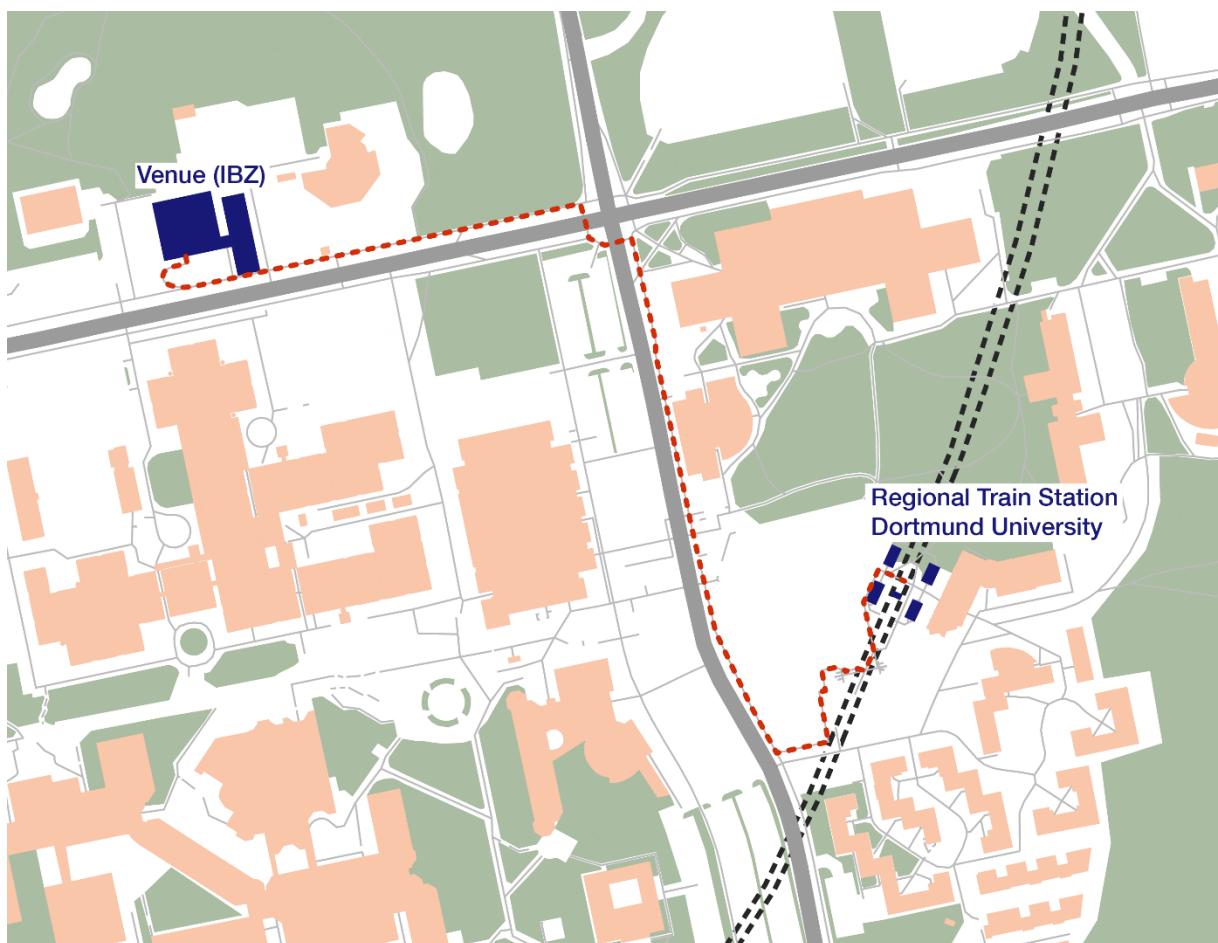

- Mobile tickets: Purchased tickets are stored directly in the app, so you don't need to print anything or search for email confirmations.
- Live notifications: The app sends push notifications about delays, cancellations, or platform changes for your specific journey.
- Door-to-door navigation: Integrated maps and guidance help you navigate stations and transfers more easily.

- Easy rebooking: Changes to your ticket or journey can often be handled directly in the app with just a few taps.
